SUNDAY SCHOOL STATISTICS. There Is Total Enrollment in Vermont of 56,924.

Burlington, Feb. 25.—Reports completed up to July 1 last and received by the state Sunday school association in this city from 569 of the 680 Protestant Sunday schools in Vermont, show that there is a total enrollment in the schools of 56,924, which is a little over 27 per cent of the approximate Protestant pop-ulation of the state, and a gain of four per cent over the total enrollment last

Reports were received from 29 more schools this year than last. These, with 28 of last year's reports, show that there are 3,012 officers connected with the schools, 4,121 teachers and 40,251 scholars, an attendance membership of 47,-384, which is a gain of 4,266 over last year. The total membership of the cradle roll is 3,688, a gain of 1,152. The home department work, which four years ago had about 1,000 members, now has over 6,000. These totals, with the to-tal attendance, gives the enrollment as

The people of Barre showed their in-terest in the establishment of an Italian mission in the city last evening by fill-ing every available seat in the Congregational church at the quited services which were held there. Rev. W. C. MacIntyre opened the service with a prayer and then Rev. Mr. Poole made an announcement of a lecture on Italy to be given at the church March 8, by Rev. H. J. Kilborn of Bradford. Rev. Ariel Bellondi, who, for several years devoted himself to the cause of the Italians, next addressed the audience, saying, in part, that all nations had great problems to solve, but that this one had the greatest of all in the country. He said that 2,800 immigrants land daily in New York, that from the year 1900 to the present time over 14,500,000 immigrants had come to this country and that their number had now increased to over 38,000,000.
